Announcement

To Shorthorn Breeders:

On account of the impossibility of securing competent herdsmen to care for the class of cattle I own, I have decided to disperse my entire herd at Chicago June 18. I am proud of the honor of mailing you this catalog. It contains an exceptionally fine lot of pedigrees, which I know will interest you. I am sure you will say they would be a credit to any herd. Never in years have Shorthorns been so scarce. We are now facing the most prosperous times in Shorthorn history. These cattle should be seen to be appreciated. Come to this sale on the above date and you will not be disappointed. It is one of the greatest events in Shorthorn history.

I am selling what I think to be the best collection of Shorthorns ever sold in a public sale, and I will leave this to the public. The cattle are right in every way. Not a doubtful proposition in the entire list and are guaranteed as they are represented. They will be sold subject to a retest in sixty days from date of sale in any case where purchaser desires it on date of sale.

Awaiting the pleasure of seeing you at the sale June 18, 1918, I remain,

Yours truly,

J. E. KENNEDY,
Janesville, Wis.

Terms and Conditions of Sale

Cash or credit of ninety days will be given on bankable note bearing 7 per cent interest from date of sale. Parties unknown to me please bring bank reference.

All stock at buyer's risk after bid off. Certified copies of herd book receipts will be furnished for each lot sold. Sale to begin at 1 o'clock p. m., Tuesday, June 18, 1918, at Chicago, Ill.

All known defects will be pointed out when animal is being offered. When sold the risk will be entirely with the purchaser.

Animals will be carefully loaded on cars for those wishing it, and feed furnished to take them to their destination.

Certificate of registration and transfer will be furnished with each animal.

Auctioneers: Carey M. Jones, Chicago; Fred Reppert, Decatur, Ind.; Scotty Milne, Kahoka, Mo.
